8. A ¾ majority vote of the active members present at a business meeting shall be required to overrule the Board of Directors action.

ARTICLE XII
CONFLICTS AND DISCLOSURES

Section A.: Disclosure of Conflicts
Officers, Directors, candidates for executive offices and the Board of Directors, as well as presenters at any Scientific Meeting of the Society shall disclose any relationship with any professional organization, publishing or pharmaceutical company, or other business, corporation, individuals or other agents, private or public, financial or non-financial, which could be perceived as possibly influencing judgment of the individual or otherwise interfere with the individual working toward the goals, purposes or spirit of the Society and its official journal. Such conflicts or potential conflicts must be disclosed in writing to the Society in such form and format and at such times as requested by the Board of Directors. Any failure to disclose any relevant information requested shall be deemed a conflict of interest in and of itself.

Section B.: Conflicts of Interest

1. Elected Officers and Directors of Society shall avoid conflicts of interest between their personal or professional activities and the goals, purposes or spirit of the Society, as a qualification for office. An Officer or Director shall be deemed to have a conflict of interest with the Society if he or she holds a position in another professional, business or other type of organization which limits or affects the Officer’s or Director’s ability to promote the goals, purposes or spirit of the Society freely and vigorously, or if the Officer or Director fails or refuses to disclose fully any actual or potential conflict of interest when requested to do so by the Board of Directors.

2. Should the Board of Directors discover or suspect a conflict of interest by an Officer, Director or candidate for a position as Officer or Director, the Board of Directors shall refer the matter to an Ad Hoc Disciplinary Committee of three Active members appointed by the President. The Ad Hoc Disciplinary Committee shall report its findings to the Board of Directors. Following such findings, the Board of Directors shall be empowered to impose appropriate discipline on the individual including, but not limited to: letter of reprimand; letter of censure; and temporary or permanent disqualification or termination of the individual from service as an Officer or Director of the Society.

3. A record of deliberations of the Ad Hoc Disciplinary Committee and the Board of Directors with respect to conflicts of interest shall be kept. A disciplined individual may appear before the Board of Directors for a hearing. The purposes of the hearing are the clarification of the reasons for the disciplinary action, the negotiation of a potential resolution of the conflict of interest, giving the individual the opportunity to defend himself or herself against the disciplinary action, and the imposition of appropriate disciplinary action, if any. The disciplined individual may appeal the decision of the Board of Directors to the membership of the Society at a business meeting, but a three-quarters (3/4) majority vote of the Active members present at this meeting shall be required to overturn the decision of the Board of Directors.

These Bylaws were adopted by a two-thirds majority vote of the Active Members present at the first Annual Business Meeting of the Society at San Francisco, California, May 14, 1994.
